

Northern Ireland

Social
Care
Council

Department of Health

An Roinn Sláinte
Máinystrie O Poustie

Be a Social Worker

Why be a Social Worker?

- You will make a positive difference in the lives of children, young people, adults and older people
- You will promote social justice in health and social care settings, in education, criminal justice and the voluntary sector
- You are eligible to apply for an incentive payment of £4,500 for each year of study on the approved NI Honours Degree in Social Work (NI residents only)
- You will have a potential starting salary of £22k
- You will be supported in practice and throughout your career with continuous personal and professional development opportunities

Find out more about a career in Social Work by visiting nisc.info/careers

In Northern Ireland you can study for the Honours Degree in Social Work at:

The Northern Ireland Social Care Council regulates the social work and social care workforce.