

Be a Social Worker

Why be a Social Worker?

- You will make a positive difference in the lives of children, young people, adults and older people
- You will promote social justice in health and social care settings, in education, criminal justice and the voluntary sector
- You will have a potential starting salary of £22k
- You will be supported in practice and throughout your career with continuous personal and professional development opportunities
- Students living and studying in Northern Ireland are entitled to apply for a payment of £4500 for each year of the Social Work degree.

Find out more about a career in Social Work by visiting nisc.org.uk/niscc.info/careers

In Northern Ireland you can study for the Honours Degree in Social Work at:

The Northern Ireland Social Care Council regulates the social work and social care workforce.