

Learning Zone

New User Experience

Mairead Harkin
Workforce Development Officer
Digital Learning
Social Care Council
November 2022

Supporting your Continuous Learning Journey

The Learning Zone

Social Care

Information to support social care workers and managers continuous learning and development including guidance on induction, PRTL, qualifications and employer responsibilities.

Read More

Learning Resources

Learning resources developed in partnership with employers, subject matter experts and key stakeholders to support registrants continuous learning journeys and help you provide evidence you are meeting your Standards.

Read More

Building Digital Capability

Information and resources to support registrants and employers build digital capability. New section coming soon.

Read More

Social Work

Information to support social workers continuous learning and development including guidance on Degree in Social Work, Assessed Year in Employment, PRTL and Professional in Practice Framework.

Read More

Learning Zone

- New look and feel
- CL&D content all in one central location
- Building digital capability
- Seamless links between LZ and main site

Social Care

Social Care Matters

New to Social Care

Information and guidance to support new registrants or those who have started in Social Care.

Read More

Social Care Worker

Information and guidance to support Social Care Workers currently registered with the Social Care Council.

Read More

Social Care Manager

Information and guidance to support Social Care Managers registered with the Social Care Council.

Read More

Social Care Qualifications

It is important to have access to the right qualifications and training. More information and guidance on qualifications you need to work in Social Care.

Read More

Post Registration Training and Learning (PRTL)

Continuous learning and development throughout your career is essential and will help you provide evidence you are meeting the Standards. To find out more about PRTL and PRTL Audit - click more.

Read More

Social Care Employer Responsibilities

Employers have a responsibility to support employees continuous learning and development opportunities.

Read More

Social Care

- Content tailored to support stage of career journey
- New content on Qualifications & Employer Responsibilities
- PRTL guidance located on LZ

New to Social Care Management

If you are a new manager, the Social Care Council has developed guidance to help you build your confidence, knowledge and skills to succeed in your job and support your staff.

The Managers Induction Programme outlines key areas of a manager's responsibility including how to support colleagues and teams maintain and improve the quality of care and support provided.

The Induction Programme for Social Care Workers – Guidance for Managers – this guide provides sample questions and managers' notes to help you use the Social Care Council Induction Programme effectively with your employees and support new staff through their induction.

Learning Zone Resources

The Social Care Council has developed a range of digital learning resources to support registrants continuous learning and development including two specifically to support managers in their role.

More Information and Guidance

Click on the tiles below to access two digital resources developed specifically to support managers and more guidance on PRTL for managers.

See Associated Resources for quick access to key guidance documents and forms.

Towards Safe, Effective and Compassionate Care

Open resource

Mental Health Awareness in the Workplace for Managers

Open resource

PRTL Requirements for Social Care Workers and Social Care Managers

Open resource

Social Care Manager

- Relevant content to support social care managers
- Quick links to guidance via Associated Resources
- Links to relevant digital guides & resources for more information

› Mental Health Awareness in the Workplace for Managers

Learning Resources

- New Visual layout/format
- Featured Resources – direct link
- Quick link to see all resources
- Improved search function

If you need any help/support using/accessing the above digital resources, please email learningzone@nisc.hscni.net

Updated: 20/07/2022

NB: The resources work best when launched from Chrome, Microsoft Edge or Safari web browsers.

Learning Zone Promotion Campaign and Digital Flyer

Your Learning Zone

The Learning Zone is a digital learning hub providing flexible access anytime, anywhere, any device to meaningful content and consistent messages about standards, values and best practice.

Over 45 free resources to support Continuous Professional Development. Check out our newest and most visited resources for social care workers and employers:

Scan the QR Code to access the Learning Zone Today or Visit learningzone.niscc.info

Essential Resources

Standards of Conduct and Practice for Social Care Workers

Values Based Recruitment

Making the right decision

Infection Control and Prevention

Getting Registered – What this means?

Top 5 Resources

Grief and Bereavement

Mental Health Awareness in the Workplace for Managers

Loneliness and Social Isolation

Promoting Good Nutrition/Dysphasia

Medication Management

Impact and Feedback

- Easy platform to use and the resources are easily accessible
- Great learning tool for new social care workers
- Helps social care workers develop confidence in practice and reflect on practice
- Keep up to date with current guidelines and good practices
- Good for all staff to do to make sure they make the right decisions
- The use of interactive resources kept me interested, was very informative and I enjoyed learning

Learning Zone

Discover ✓
Learn ✓
Apply ✓
Reflect ✓

Over 45 Resources available @ learningzone.niscc.info

w: <https://learningzone.niscc.info>

e: Mairead.Harkin@niscc.hscni.net