

Care in Practice Framework – the journey so far

Paul Rooney

Care in Practice – the journey so far

Northern Ireland

Social

Care

Council

Qualification Based Register (QBR)

Develop and deliver a proposal for the introduction of a QBR for the social care workforce register.

Career Pathway for Social Care

Develop and deliver a career pathway framework for the registered social care workforce in Northern Ireland.

Continuous Learning Framework

Develop and deliver a continuous professional learning and development framework for the registered social care workforce, aligned to registration requirements.

The Care in Practice Framework (CiP)

Key:

Entrance Level Social Care Practitioner

Learning and developing new skills

Social Care Practitioner

Developing and consolidating new skills

Enhanced Social Care Practitioner

Developing and enhancing skills

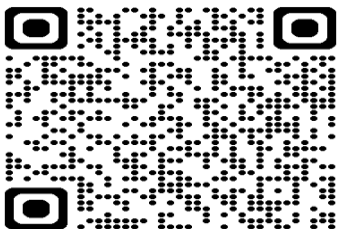

Social Care Manager/Leader

Helping others achieve their goals

Qualifications pathway

Continuous learning pathway

Care in Practice (CIP) - Supporting continuous learning and career development

Northern Ireland

The CIP framework is designed to enable social care practitioners to engage in career long learning and development using their practice experience, knowledge and skills to work across complex environments at different levels within the health and social care system.

