

Skills and Qualities for NISCC Participation Partnership Group Members

To become part of the group there are some skills and qualities (things that you are good at doing) that you need to have

Below is a list of some of the skills, experience and qualities that you will need to have to become a member

1. To be a Service User and have experience of Social Care services

2. To have ideas on how NISCC can grow its user and carer involvement

3. To have experience of user groups

4. To have good listening skills, be able to communicate your views and opinions and respect the views of others

5. To work as part of a team

6. To want to learn and grow your skills, knowledge and experience

7. To have time to be part of the group

8. To understand and enjoy your role (job) in the group

9. To respect and follow NISCC's policies and procedures

This document has been produced by Association for Real Change NI with TILII (Telling It Like It!) using Photo Symbols 4

Contact: 02890 380960 www.arcuk.org.uk/northernireland

