

Social Work Postgraduate Research Methods Programme Information event

The Research Methods Programme provides three postgraduate, post-qualifying modules for social workers, service users, carers and others involved in social care research. This takes the form of three modules.

- A literature review
- A research project
- Research dissemination

Nominations will be sought from employers and sponsoring agencies before June 2020

An information event will be held for prospective candidates as follows

10am Thursday 5th March 2020

Room 12G03A (Block 12 level G Room 3a - map enclosed)

Ulster University Jordanstown Campus

Further details from Campbell Killick

c.killick@ulster.ac.uk

